

2013

*Jerusalem Hill Vineyard
Pinot Noir*

Our Jerusalem Hill Vineyard is our lowest elevation vineyard, and is located 16 miles south of the Dundee hills in the Eola-Amity Hills. This vineyard is planted in Woodburn sedimentary soils brought into the valley during the Missoula Floods, 13,000 to 15,000 years ago.

The 2013 Jerusalem Hill Pinot Noir is deep ruby-red with aromas of ripe raspberries, cedar cigar box, baking spices and slate. The mouthfeel is round and generous with layers of cocoa and toasty oak unfolding with red currants and cranberries. The wine is silky and well-balanced with concentrated, opulent flavors, delivering a great balance between richness and flavor-driven intensity and a wonderfully persistent finish.
